

Glen Affric Brewery Wins 7 Medals at the World Beer Awards 2021

Glen Affric Brewery is very pleased to announce that we've won 7 medals at the 2021 World Beer Awards, including 2 awards for Country's Best:

- Rutting Stag – UK's Best (Amber)
- Conquering Mountains – UK's Best (Imperial/Double IPAA)
- Forres Haze - Silver (IPA)
- I Can't Believe It's NOT-Ella - Silver (Flavoured Stout/Porter)
- Loch & Load - Silver (Classic Pilsner)
- Forres Haze - Bronze (Milkshake/New England IPA)
- Tart An Typhoon - Bronze (Flavoured Wild/Sour)

We're thrilled with these results, especially to have received 2 Country's Best medals for Rutting Stag (a favourite beer amongst many in the team) in the Amber category, and Conquering Mountains in the highly competitive Double IPA category.

Both these beers will now go on to the next round of judging at the World Beer Awards in September, to hopefully win the title of World's Best. And if we do win for either beer, that will mean we will have won a World's Best title 3 years in a row!

The World Beer Awards is one of the most coveted and prestigious awards in our industry, so to add 7 more medals from this organisation to our existing portfolio of awards (now 52 awards total) continues to solidify our position in the industry as a leader in producing world-class beers at affordable prices, including World's Best Lager (2019) & World's Best Pale Ale (2020).

A huge congratulations are in order to our entire production, cellaring and packaging team for their stellar efforts in producing outstanding beers, consistently year on year!
